

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory - Task 1

Read Chapters 3 and 4

You could listen to Miss Bradley read these chapters on Flipgrid if you don't have a copy of the book.

Why is it strange that nobody ever comes out of Willy Wonka's factory?
What do we learn about Prince Pondicherry's personality from the story?
What technique does Roald Dahl use at the end of Chapter 3 to encourage the reader to keep reading?

The owners of the other chocolate factories have unusual names. Why do you think Roald Dahl has chosen these interesting words?

Do you think all Grandpa Joe's stories are true? Why or why not?

Who do you think is working in the factory? What kind of characters?

Follow-up Reading Activities

1. Read the description of Prince Pondicherry's chocolate palace in Chapter 3 carefully. Draw and label a detailed sketch showing the palace immediately after it had been built, and then the palace after the very hot day caused it to sink slowly to the ground.

2. Chapter 4 ends with the headline:

WONKA FACTORY TO BE OPENED AT LAST TO LUCKY FEW.

Write a newspaper article to accompany this headline.

Use what you have learned so far about Willy Wonka and his factory to excite and engage your readers by tempting them with the possibility of a glimpse inside the factory.
