

Porchester Park Project

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar - Chapter 6

1. Some of the words in the sentences below have missing letters. Fill in the gaps with either ei or ey.

Freya wished that more of her n _ _ ghbours had agreed to help out in the park. She told her dad that th _ _ had to go to the park that evening. Dad thought that th _ _ shouldn't stay much later than _ _ght o'clock.

2. For each sentence, put a tick to show whether the main clause or subordinate clause is underlined.

Sentence	Main clause	Subordinate clause
Freya helped in the park every night, even when she was feeling exhausted .
If you want it to pass the inspection , you must come and help tidy up the park.
It had rained in the night , which meant that the pavements were slippery.

3. Which sentence uses inverted commas correctly?

Tick one.

Me wanting to come first?” said Vic in fake surprise.
“Me wanting to come first?” said Vic in fake surprise.
Me wanting to come first? “said Vic” in fake surprise.
“Me wanting to come first? said Vic in fake surprise.”

4. Insert the missing apostrophes into the sentences below.

- a) Freya had a fitful nights sleep because her dreams were full of huge tractors ploughing up the earth.
- b) I ran around clearing up all of the rocks from the ground in the childrens play area.
- c) The pairs head torches meant that they could keep their hands free and still see in the dark.

5. Add a suitable fronted adverbial to the sentence below.

_____, we still hadn’t made much difference to the overall look and feel of the park.